with

SCANDINAVIAN MUSIC

by

Linnea and Sylvia Hurttia violin
William Larson piano

Sunday, June 3 at 2:00 pm
Frick Fine Arts Auditorium, University of Pittsburgh
(in Oakland, opposite to Cathedral of Learning)

The program consists of Scandinavian music including Sibelius' Humoresques I and II, and his beautiful Romance, Englund's Sonata, and songs by Grieg, Merikanto, Kuula and Jarnefelt. Also included are Bartok's Romanian dances, Tchaikovsky's Meditation, Bach's Concerto for two violins and Saint-Saens' Introduction and Rondo capriccio.

Linnea and Sylvia have been studying violin at the Music Conservatory of Turku, Sibelius Academy in Helsinki and Turku Music Academy. They have been performing in several European countries including Germany, Finland, Sweden, Switzerland, Estonia, Lithuania, the Czech Republic and Hungary. William Larson has performed as soloist in recitals, with major orchestras and renowned performers. He is organist and pianist at the First Unitarian Church of Pittsburgh, and a collaborative pianist for Duquesne University. Mr. Larson also serves as a substitute keyboardist for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra.

The concert is arranged by the Finnish Room Committee at the University of Pittsburgh. The proceedings will be used towards building the Finnish Heritage Classroom in the Cathedral of Learning.

Tickets are $15.00/adults and $10.00/students and children under 12. During the intermission it is possible to meet with the artists while enjoying coffee or tea and pastries.
